Those who own property within Paradise Valley town limits will be forced to pay for fire prevention and control services provided by the city of Phoenix.

The new cost of living in the Town of Paradise Valley will start next year, officials say.

The Town of Paradise Valley is hosting an open house on the proposed structure 9 a.m. Saturday, June 9 at Fire Station No. 2, 6539 E. Lincoln Drive.

Embedded within Ordinance No. 650 — which was passed May 10 by Paradise Valley Town Council — is a requirement stating all real property owners "shall obtain" fire protection services "from a provider licensed by the town" at a rate to be determined by the municipality.
